10th "CHAMPIONS OF THE ARTS GALA"

The Arts Council for Monterey County held its 10th annual Champion of the Arts gala at the Portola Hotel on Saturday, January 17th. Proceeds benefit and support more than 50 art organizations. There were hundreds of guests who enjoyed the dinner banquet along with live music and performances. A silent action had many delightful items to offer the attendees.

MBPAPA was one of several artistic and creative individuals and organizations honored for their contribution to the arts. During the awards ceremony, Murray Wagon, accepted the Champion of the Arts award on behalf of MBPAPA. He gave a lively and informative presentation on the achievement and work accomplished by the artists of MBPAPA which included participation in the Natividad Hospital art exhibit. There were approximately eleven MBPAPA members attending and enjoying the gala. By Yolanda Gurries

MBPAPA Exhibition at Natividad

On March 5th, MBPAPA was honored at a terrific reception at the Natividad Medical Center in Salinas. It was very well attended by artists, staff and the public. The program was very moving as the directors of the various volunteer organizations relayed stories about the good works being done at the hospital. It is an honor for our organization to be a small part of their philanthropy

After enjoying refreshments and viewing our exhibition, Daryl gathered the artists for an impromptu awards ceremony. Randall Sexton was our Juror for this beautiful show. At the end of the evening several red dots were spied and a good time was had by all.

Congratulations!

The Artist by STEVE WISE

The artist stares at nature as if to say, you and I will be one someday. The great golden eagle of Truth flies and defies humans to capture it. The way to paint a picture is not to try and capture an image. Let IT, your higher consciousness, paint the picture, while your conscious mind stands ready to guide.

Pt. Lobos - Painting at China Cove December 27, 2014

A lovely sunny day was par for the course when a group of MBPAPA members gathered together in order to paint at Point Lobos China Cove on Saturday, December 27, 2014.

It was an ideal time for Videographer, Zee Labega, to capture the artists painting in their usual painting attire for the video production to be presented at the Champions of the Arts 10th Anniversary Gala on January 17, 2015.

Following the painting session, the artists meet for lunch at the China Cove picnic area for a lively critiique of their paintings created on that morning. Carol Belliveau led the discussion for each painting presented. Other MBPAPA members were free to voice their opinions. It was an exciting and productive event. The paint-out and critique is scheduled to continue on the fourth Saturday of each month to be held at Point Lobos State Park.

All MBPAPA members are encouraged to join in for our paint-outs and informal critiques. From Yolanda Gurries
