MBPAPA Annual Meeting & Pot Luck Luncheon

Jan. 19, 11-2:00 at Markham Ranch Clubhouse Corral de Tierra Rd. in Salinas

This year we're planning a "Potluck Luncheon" for our Annual Meeting to be held at the Markham Ranch Clubhouse. There will be no luncheon fee this year. Specific directions and gate instructions will be coming out soon via our private General Membership email list.

Please RSVP to donnarobbins@opendoor.com so we'll know the number of members to accommodate.

So that we have a nice assortment of dishes, we'd like to request that those with the last names starting with A to F bring non-alcoholic drinks, G to L ~salads, M to R ~ a main course dish, and S through Z ~dessert. If you have a special dish that doesn't fall into "your" category, not to worry, it should all work out. Tea and coffee will be provided. Joe Ragey has generously offered to bring a Honey Baked Ham enough for everyone as his special gift to MBPAPA. Joe, I hope I haven't embarrassed you!

New members will be able to receive their MBPAPA aprons and a name tag. If you need a printed MBPAPA name tag, please email Sibyl Johnson, sibyljohnson2017@gmail.com.

Aprons will also be available for $15.00. We're hoping members will want to become more involved this year and sign-up to volunteer for various committees. Membership renewals for 2019 can be made via check (no cash payments if at all possible), $45 Associate Membership, $85 for Signature Membership. Payments can also be made via PayPal through our website; MBPAPA.org

Our luncheon is a great time to meet our new members, to reconnect with those you haven't seen for a while, to hear about plans for the new year, as well as a time to share your requests for the upcoming year. We're looking forward to this opportunity for all of us to come together to share a wonderful meal and some time together. Hoping to see you all there.

UPON A PAINTED OCEAN: AN ODE TO THE CALIFORNIA COAST

Now - March 30, 2019

At the UCI Irvine Museum Collection

Tribute to the California Coast, "Upon a Painted Ocean", is in reference to Samuel Taylor Coleridge's epic poem about the sea, The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, published in 1798. Contrary to the tragic theme of the poem, the exhibition celebrates the splendor of our sun-filled coast. Featuring works by important historical artists as well as by contemporary painters. In addition to spectacular scenes of idyllic beaches, the exhibition includes paintings of Santa Catalina Island, Coronado Beach, the rocky cliffs of Big Sur, views of San Francisco Bay, and historic vistas of Crystal Cove.

Guy Rose is represented by two seascapes, one of Monterey and the other of Laguna Beach. Point Lobos, usually associated with foggy, overcast mornings, shows the unique rocks and cliffs under a bright overhead sun. By contrast, Lifting Fog shows Laguna Beach, noted for its bright sunny days, just emerging from the morning fog.

On display are works by Rex Brandt, Frank Cuprien, Granville Redmond, Edgar Payne, Ruth Peabody, Arthur Rider, William Ritschel, Donna Schuster, George Gardner Symons, Elmer Wachtel & William Wendt.

In this first exhibition dedicated to the work of Paul Gauguin (1848–1903), an exceptional display of more than fifty paintings, wood carvings, and ceramics from the renowned collections of the Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek, Copenhagen, will be on view for the first time in San Francisco. Presenting these pieces alongside Oceanic art and Gauguin works on paper from the Fine Arts Museums' permanent collections, the exhibition explores Gauguin's inner quests and imaginings—his spiritual journey—and how his relationships with his wife, other artists, and people he encountered during his sojourns shaped his experiences, his work, and his development as an artist.
